

A JET-TOUR THROUGH THE BIBLE -SESSION 7

Introduction

Why is it necessary to have four gospels?

These four gospels give a _____ - _____ picture of our Lord Jesus Christ

Matthew presents the _____ King (the lion)

Mark presents Yahweh's _____ (the ox)

Luke presents the _____ of _____ (the man)

John presents the _____ of _____ (the eagle)

There is a blending of sovereignty and humility; humanity and deity in these four gospels.

Matthew

Matthew is the gospel of _____

His audience is _____

Matthew 4:23-25

Matthew 5-7 – the words of the King to the nation

“Moses said to you _____ but I say to you _____.”

Matthew 12 is the turning point of the book

Matthew has no account of the ascension. Why not?

Mark

Mark is the gospel of _____

His audience is _____

I AM the true _____ (15:1)

John's purpose for writing his gospel – John 20:30-31

Acts

Acts is a book of transition

It takes us from the dispensation of _____ to the dispensation of _____

Acts is divided into two main sections:

Peter's ministry as the apostle to the Jews

Paul's ministry as the apostle to the Gentiles

Acts 1-9 primarily shows how God specially dealt with the Jews

Luke 13:6-9

Acts 10-28 shows the transition from old covenant standards to the new covenant standards

Acts 11:26
